

ARTS IGNITE

Teaching Artists for Lutheran Social Services of New York

Arts Ignite is seeking Teaching Artists of all genres to join the Arts Ignite Lutheran Social Services team to lead bi-weekly workshops and take part in community events throughout the year with students ages 5 to 17.

Workshops will generally take place from 1:30 to 3:30 PM with two (2) one-hour classes on Fridays. During workshops and events, students will be offered the opportunity to engage in arts-rich learning led by their Arts Ignite Teaching Artists. Each workshop will also focus on building students' positive peer relationships as well as the core skills of creativity, confidence, collaboration, and communication.

All teaching artists must be conversational to fluent in Spanish, as instruction is led primarily in Spanish. Before being onsite, teaching artists must fill out a Justice Center Fingerprint Application Form, and an LSSNY Volunteer Packet. Teaching artists must also be available to participate in a mandatory two (2) hour Prevention of Sexual Abuse and Sexual Harassment (PSASH) training. This training will be held virtually and facilitated by the Lutheran Social Services team.

Stipend:

TBD based on specific workshop details. Teaching Artists are paid a base rate of $60/hr for instruction, $30/hr for planning and training, plus a travel stipend.

About Lutheran Social Services Safe Haven

Lutheran Social Services (LSS) Safe Haven program provides follow-up case management services to minors who arrive in the country without parents or guardians and who have been released to qualified sponsors in the New York Metropolitan area, pending their immigration court proceedings. In addition to housing and supervision during their court proceedings, LSS also provides young people with quality care and educational services to reinforce routine and safety.

Location: Near 3 Av - 149th Street, The Bronx, NY (exact location to be shared prior to workshop or event)

Job Requirements and Responsibilities

Arts Ignite Teaching Artist responsibilities:

- Curriculum building and lesson planning workshops and event
- Planning and teaching age-appropriate lessons that focus on the development of core skills.
- Regular collaboration and communication with Arts Ignite staff members for a cohesive program experience.
- Support and implementation of Arts Ignite methodology and pedagogical techniques in the classroom.
- Implementation of Arts Ignite evaluation tools in the classroom.
- Full participation in Arts Ignite training sessions.
- Full participation in Arts Ignite pre- and post-program surveys.

Interested teaching artists should email
tiffany@artsignite.org

Note: A background check, agreement to the Arts Ignite child safeguarding policy, and proof of full vaccination are required for final job placement.