

ARTS IGNITE

Teaching Artists of All Genres for Win Glenwood and Win Westway

Arts Ignite Teaching Artists will lead monthly hour-long art workshops at two Win residences, Win Westway and Win Glenwood. Our workshops will focus on developing and deepening young people's exposure to different art forms and artists and expanding their creative capacity. Both the visual and performing arts will be offered and each session will serve as an exciting introduction to a new skill and experience.

Each workshop will also focus on cultivating social emotional skills in relationship building and self-awareness as well as core skills like creativity, confidence, collaboration, and communication.

Teaching Artists are responsible for lesson planning and working collaboratively with students and the Arts Ignite team throughout their time onsite.

Rate:

$75 per workshop plus a $25 travel stipend

ARTS IGNITE

About Win:

Win is the largest provider of family shelter and supportive housing in New York City and has been an Arts Ignite partner since 2013. Win transforms the lives of New York City families by providing holistic solutions of safe housing, critical services, and ground-breaking programs they need to succeed on their own—so families can regain their independence and their children can look forward to a brighter future.
